

W.J. Niederkorn Museum and Art Center Inc.
What's New at the Judge Eghart House?
Summer 2014

The Judge Eghart House mission is to preserve, illustrate, and educate for present and future generations a living example of family life in late-19th century Port Washington, Wisconsin.

We love our Members!

Thanks to all our members, past, present and future. Those interested in becoming members -- membership forms are enclosed/attached. Lifetime members please feel free to pass on the form to family or friends. Dues are used to pay for the upkeep and maintenance of the house. ☺

Looking for something fun to do in summer?

We need tour guides!

Would you like to learn, meet new people, and make a contribution to the community? Join the Eghart House as a tour guide. Eghart House volunteers lead tours on three Sunday afternoons during the summer, as well as occasionally for special weekday tours. Training is provided. The time commitment is approximately four hours per month during June, July, and August. In addition, volunteers help with maintaining and cleaning the house. Those interested should call Gina Taucher, 262-284-2875. ☺

Important Dates:

Annual Meeting of the Eghart House:
Monday, May 5, 7:00 pm, Port Washington Police Station Meeting Room. Gordon Kirst from Gordon's Antiques will informally appraise and identify items brought to the meeting.
