What's New at the Judge Eghart House?
Summer 2015
45th Anniversary Season!

The Judge Eghart House mission is to preserve, illustrate, and educate for present and future generations a living example of family life in late-19th century Port Washington, Wisconsin.

ANNUAL MEETING

We are very excited to announce our special guest for the Annual Meeting of the Eghart House this year - Mary Lincoln!

We welcome Jessica Michna, who performs historical, educational programs portraying Mary Todd Lincoln and other First Ladies. Michna's performances are compelling and emotionally engrossing. Audiences laugh along with her humorous anecdotes about life in the White House and they share in her tears as she relates how the horrors of war have impacted the First Families.

Please join us at the Annual Meeting of the Eghart House on Monday, May 4, 7:00 pm, in the Port Washington Police Station Meeting Room at 365 North Wisconsin Street, Port Washington. A short business meeting will be followed by a presentation of "A Widow Forgotten" a performance portraying Mary Todd Lincoln by Jessica Michna. Free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. ☺

EXHIBITS

The Judge Eghart House is proud to present our special exhibits for 2015, our 45th year of operation:

Victorian Textiles

Sundays, May 24 - July 12

Whether the beauty and intricacy of hand-sewn quilts grabs your attention, or you are curious about what Victorian wedding dresses look like, come and see our special display in the early part of the summer. It's all about textiles through the middle of July!

Victorian Christmas

Sundays, July 19 - September 6

It's Christmas in July (and beyond) at the Eghart House this year! Come celebrate the quaint Victorian traditions with us. From the music, to the toys, to the decorations, take a trip back in time to the happiest season of all!

Contact Pat Baganz at (262) 353-6555 with questions. ☺

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE!

We love our members!

Thanks to all our members, past, present and future. It's time to pay membership dues again. There are three ways to become a member:

- Annual $10
- Supporting $25
- Sustaining $100

A membership form is enclosed.

Lifetime/Sustaining members, please feel free to pass it on to family or friends. Dues are used to pay for the upkeep and maintenance of the house. ∞

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING FUN TO DO IN SUMMER? WE NEED TOUR GUIDES!

Would you like to learn, meet new people, and make a contribution to the community? Join the Eghart House as a tour guide. Know someone who would be interested in history? Pass the word! Eghart House volunteers lead tours on three Sunday afternoons during the summer, as well as occasional special weekday tours. Training is provided. In addition, volunteers help with maintaining and cleaning the house. The time commitment is approximately 12-15 hours per summer. Those interested should call Gina Taucher, 262-284-2875.
