

JUDGE EGHART HOUSE 2019 ANNUAL NEWSLETTER

GUIDES WANTED!

Are you, or someone you know, looking for an enjoyable way to get involved in our local community?

We would like several new guides this year because we're growing and expanding the activities we do throughout the season. It's fun to learn about the history of Port Washington and the wonderful Eghart family with a great group of like-minded volunteers. The time commitment is approximately 12-15 hours (3 Saturday afternoons) per summer. No Victorian costumes required (unless you'd like that!). You'll get everything you need – a guide book, training, support, and even an end-of-season celebration to thank you for your work. Call Gina Taucher at (262)284-2875 to come join the fun!

The Judge Eghart House will continue to be open on Saturdays in summer so that guests are able to take full advantage of all Port's activities that day. Happy visiting!

2019 Season: Saturday May 25 to Saturday August 31

2019 Annual Meeting: Mon. May 6, 2019

Victorian Cooking Demonstration = Free and Open to the Public =

Learn & eat! Watch (and perhaps assist!) our Wade House – affiliated demonstrator prepare a few Victorian dishes. Learn about the different cooking techniques and unique measurements (“use a piece of butter the size of a hen’s egg”) of the time. You’ll get to sample all the demonstrated items. You’ll be surprised by how doable and tasty these old recipes are. Some will be taken from the Eghart House’s “Girl Bachelors Cookbook 1899” which was produced locally.

Port Washington Police Station Community Room

Monday, May 6 at 7 pm

A short business meeting precedes the presentation.

Come one come all!

2019 Special Exhibit: Everything Old is New Again

Trends are certainly cyclical. Today’s younger generations, hipsters, and innovators reach back into the past for inspiration on the present. We are going to feature popular current movements, like:

- Farm to table/Locavore
- Facial hair fashions and
- Home schooling

to list a few, that were part of the daily round during the Victorian era. Come visit and take inspiration from history compared to current day.

Thank You to Eghart House 2018 Members and Supporters!

Our Membership Categories are Annual ($10), Supporting ($25) and Sustaining ($100). Last year we also had many people giving memorials to the Eghart House in Bruce Bamberg's name, plus other donation amounts. We want to honor those who have been so very generous over the last year – your support is appreciated!
